5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately.

Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.

The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.

In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied.

You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Non-Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance for a purpose related to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant, otherwise it may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.

The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.

You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

You must disclose all material facts such as your occupation and your personal pursuits which may affect the risk profile and the number of personal accident policies that you have purchased from other insurance companies.

6. Is the policy subject to Cash Before Cover?

Yes, it is a condition of the contract of insurance that the full premium must be paid and received by Us before the commencement of the policy.

7. What are the major exclusions under this policy?

This policy does not cover bodily injury or loss caused directly or indirectly wholly or partly caused by bacterial infections, any other kind of disease, medical or surgical treatment, childbirth or miscarriage, while the driver is under the influence of alcohol or narcotics, while the vehicle is used for illegal business pursuit as an unlicensed common carrier, any bodily injury which shall result in hernia, suicide or any attempt thereof (sane or insane), war risks, loss occasioned while the vehicle is used for hire, racing, road rally, pacemaking, speed-testing or use for any purpose in connection with motor trade, the driver, if such driver does not hold a valid driver's licence and persons under the age of 3 and over the age of 70.

9. Can I cancel my policy?

You may cancel this policy at any time by notifying The Pacific Insurance Berhad in writing and provided that no claim has arisen during the then current period of insurance. The Pacific Insurance Berhad will refund any premium for the unexpired period of insurance calculated at our usual short-term rates.

10. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact or personal details?

It is important that you inform The Pacific Insurance Berhad of any change in your contact or personal details to ensure that all correspondences reach you in a timely manner.
