5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Consumer Insurance Contract

- Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately.
- Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.
- The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.
- In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied.
- You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Non-Consumer Insurance Contract

- Pursuant to Paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance for a purpose related to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant, otherwise it may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.

- The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.
- You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

You must ensure that the sum insured for the property and interest insured under the Fire Section is based on the new replacement or reinstatement cost, taking into account the renovations/improvements made to your property. If the amount insured is less than the actual replacement value at the time of loss, the condition of average will apply in the event of a claim. The deductible/ excess is the amount you have to bear before we pay a claim.

In the event of a claim notification from a third party, you should not admit, offer, promise or pay the claimant without our written consent.

The premium must be paid and received by us within 60 days from the inception date of the cover, otherwise the cover is automatically cancelled and you will still be responsible to pay the proportion of premium for the period we have been on risk.

6. What are the major exclusions under this Policy?

This policy does not cover:

- wilful misconduct of the Assured
- Ordinary leakage, loss in weight or volume, or ordinary wear and tear of the goods insured
- insufficiency or unsuitability of packing or preparation of the goods insured
- atmospheric or climatic conditions, wear and tear, gradual deterioration, moths, vermin or Inherent vice or nature of the goods insured
