5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately.

Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.

The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.

In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied.

You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Non-Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance for a purpose related to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant, otherwise it may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.

The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.

You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

6. What are the major exclusions under this policy?

This policy does not cover certain losses, such as your own death or bodily injury due to a motor accident and your liability against claims from passengers in your vehicle, loss, damage or liability arising from an act of nature i.e. flood, storm or landslide. This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the sample policy/policy contract for the full list of exclusions under this policy.

7. Can I cancel my policy?

You may cancel your policy by giving a written notice to The Pacific Insurance Berhad. Upon cancellation, you are entitled to a refund of the premium based on short-period rates, where any minimum premium paid under the policy is not refundable.

8. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact or personal details?

It is important that you inform The Pacific Insurance Berhad of any change in your contact or personal details to ensure that all correspondences reach you in a timely manner.

9. How do I make a claim?

The Pacific Insurance Berhad must be notified in writing with full details as soon as possible after an event which may become the subject of a claim under this policy. All accidents must be reported to the Police as required by Law. After lodging a police report, your car can be sent to any repair workshops approved by Persatuan Insurans Am Malaysia (PIAM). In the case of any windscreen damage or breakage, where windscreen add-on is extended, your car can be sent to any windscreen repair shops, as well as any repair workshops approved by Persatuan Insurans Am Malaysia (PIAM).
