1. What is this product about?

This is a 24-hour worldwide Personal Accident insurance policy that provide coverage for death and funeral expenses, or permanent disablement arising from an accident.

2. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately.

Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.

The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us. In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied.

You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Non-Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance for a purpose related to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant, otherwise it may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.

The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

You must disclose all material facts such as your occupation and your personal pursuits which may affect the risk profile and the number of personal accident policies that you have purchased from other insurance companies.

You should also be aware of the following:

- (a) Importance of disclosure - You must take reasonable care to disclose all material facts in the proposal form and check that the information you provide is accurate and correct.
- (b) The description of coverage in the Benefit table below is a brief summary for quick and easy reference. The precise terms and conditions that apply are in the policy document. You can request to view the insurance policy wordings before you sign up or read the wordings during the 15-days “free look” period from the date you receive this policy.
- (c) In the event of a conflict between the English and the translated versions of this PDS, the English version shall prevail.
