SCHEDULE 9 OF FINANCIAL SERVICES ACT 2013 (FSA)

Consumer Insurance Contracts (Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession)

This Policy is issued in consideration of the payment of premium as specified in the Policy Schedule and pursuant to the answers given in your Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) and any other disclosures made by you between the time of submission of your Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) and the time this contract is entered into. The answers and any other disclosures given by you shall form part of this contract of insurance between you and us. However, in the event of any pre-contractual misrepresentation made in relation to your answers or in any disclosures given by you, only the remedies in Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013 will apply.

This Policy reflects the terms and conditions of the contract of insurance as agreed between you and us.

Non-Consumer Insurance Contracts (Insurance for purposes related to your trade, business or profession)

This Policy is issued in consideration of the payment of premium as specified in the Policy Schedule and pursuant to the answers given in your Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) and any other disclosures made by you between the time of submission of your Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) and the time this contract is entered into. The answers and any other disclosures given by you shall form part of this contract of insurance between you and us. In the event of any pre-contractual misrepresentation made in relation to your answers or in any disclosures made by you, it may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.

This Policy reflects the terms and conditions of the contract of insurance as agreed between you and us.

Duty of Disclosure Clause

Consumer Insurance Contracts

Where you have applied for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you had a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) i.e. you should have answered the questions fully and accurately. Failure to have taken reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s) change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance in accordance with the remedies in Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013. You were also required to disclose any other matter that you knew to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied.

You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contrct of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Non-Consumer Insurance Contracts

Where you have applied for this Insurance wholly for purposes related to your trade, business or profession, you had a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant otherwise it may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.

You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contrct of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Questions and Answers on HomeContent Insurance

Q. How much do linsure for the contents?

- A. It should be based on the current new replacement value of all your household goods and personal effects.
- Q. Do I need to make an inventory of all the items in my house?
- No. However if you wish to insure any specific item exceeding RM2000 per item, please declare as per section 2 of this proposal form (except furniture, piano, organ, household and electrical appliances)
- Q. How will I be compensated in the event of a claim?
- A. Your house contents will be replaced as new (except carpet and other floor coverings, clothing or footwear, curtains, household linen, sporting equipment, toys and kitchenware and utensils where depreciation for wear and tear will apply).
- Q. I already have an existing Fire Insurance Policy arranged by my bank. Does the policy also cover my home content?
- A. No. Normally the policy covers you against damage to your building only.

HomeContent Insurance

Your home content and personal possession are assets that you have taken years to accumulate. As such, its total loss can have a devastating effect on your financial security. Even if the extent of damage is not total. loss and/or damage to valuables in homes happen everyday.
